Entry of Comfort Order as to a Limited Controversy Regarding the Applicability to Movant's Claims of an Order for Mandatory Mediation [ECF No. 20671] (the "Scheduling Order").²

Request for Relief

1. On May 3, 2022, a group of wage claimants ("Movants")³ filed the Urgent Joint Motion Requesting an Order for Approval of Modification of the Automatic Stay or in the Alternative, Requesting a Ruling or Entry of Comfort Order as to a Limited Controversy Regarding the Applicability to Movant's Claims of an Order for Mandatory Mediation [ECF No. 20670] (the "Motion") requesting that the Court enter an order to, among other things, modify the automatic stay to allow certain litigations currently pending in the Public Service Appeals Commission of Puerto Rico ("CASP") and the Puerto Rico Court of First Instance. See Motion at 11-12.

2. On May 4, 2022, the Court entered the Scheduling Order, which provides that responses to the Motion must be filed by May 17, 2022, and the Movants' reply by May 24, 2022.

3. The Commonwealth is still in the process of gathering the relevant information to properly assess the allegations contained therein and to explore the possibility of a consensual resolution of the Motion. Accordingly, with the Movants' consent, the Commonwealth proposes the following extensions of the deadlines set forth in the Scheduling Order:

- The deadline to respond to the Motion shall be extended to June 3, 2022.

² The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico, as the Commonwealth's representative pursuant to section 315(b) of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act ("PROMESA"), has authorized the Department of Justice to file this Urgent Motion on behalf of the Commonwealth.

³ The term "wage claimants" refers to the following group of plaintiffs identified in the Motion: Francisco Beltran-Cintron et al (CASP case no. 2021-05-0345), Abraham-Giménez et al (CASP case No. 2021-05-0346), Prudencio Acevedo-Arocho et al (CFI Case No. 2005-5022), Alejo Cruz-Santos et al (CASP case No. 2002-06-1493), Delfina López-Rosario (CASP case No. 01-10-372), and Madeline Acevedo-Camacho et al (CASP case No. 2016-05-1340).

- The deadline for the Movants to file a reply to a response, if any, shall be extended to June 15, 2022.
- The Court will thereafter take the Motion on submission, unless the Court determines that a hearing is necessary.

4. Pursuant to Paragraph I.H of the Sixteenth Amended Notice, Case Management and Administrative Procedures [ECF No. 20190-1] (the “Case Management Procedures”), the Commonwealth hereby certifies that it has carefully examined the matter and concluded that there is a true need for an urgent motion; it has not created the urgency through any lack of due diligence; has made a bona fide effort to resolve the matter without a hearing; has made reasonable, good-faith communications in an effort to resolve or narrow the issues that are being brought to the Court, and Movants consent to the request in this urgent motion.

Notice

5. The Commonwealth has provided notice of this motion in accordance with the Case Management Procedures to the following parties: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Puerto Rico; (b) the indenture trustees and/or agents, as applicable, for the Debtors’ bonds; (c) the entities on the list of creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims against COFINA; (d) counsel to the statutory committees appointed in these Title III cases; (e) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Puerto Rico; (f) counsel to the Oversight Board; (g) the Puerto Rico Department of Justice; (h) all parties filing a notice of appearance in these Title III cases; and (i) Movants. A copy of the motion is also available on the Commonwealth’s case website at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/puertorico/>.

6. The Commonwealth submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE the Commonwealth requests the Court enter the Proposed Order and grant such other relief as is just and proper.
